DECLARATION OF CHAD WALTER SUBMITTED
PURSUANT TO 37 C.F.R § 1.131

Sir:

I, Chad Walter, declare that:

1. I am a registered patent attorney at Carstens & Cahoon, LLP.
2. I performed most of the drafting of U.S. Patent Application No. 10/700,022 which I filed on November 3, 2003.
3. I have reviewed the billing records for this patent application and offer the following summary of work that occurred between August 21, 2003, the effective date of the Hohenacker reference and November 3, 2003 when the instant application was filed.
4. On August 1, 2003 we received a retainer check and signed engagement letter to commence work on the patent application. The billing records indicate that time was billed to this file on Friday, August 1, 2003. August 2nd & 3rd was the weekend and billing records indicate that time was spent on the application on each day from Monday, August 4th through Thursday, August 7th.

5. The billing records further indicate that time was billed to the file on Tuesday, August 12th through Friday, August 15th.
6. The billing records further indicate that time was billed to the file from Monday, August 18th through Wednesday, August 20th.
7. The billing records indicate that time was also billed to the file the following week on Monday, August 25th and Tuesday, August 26th.
8. After Labor Day weekend, billing records indicate time was spent on the file on Tuesday, September 2nd, Wednesday, September 10th and Friday, September 12th.
9. The billing records further indicate that time was spent on the file on Monday, September 29th through October 3rd and on Monday, October 6th through Friday, October 10th. October 11th & 12th was a weekend and time was further billed to the file on Monday, October 13th through Wednesday, October 15th and on Friday, October 17th.
10. Time was also billed to the file on Monday, October 20th and Thursday, October 23rd through Friday, October 24th. On Monday, October 27th revisions were made to the patent application per the client and time was spent on patent application on Monday, October 27th through Thursday, October 30th.
11. The patent application was filed on the subsequent Monday, November 3, 2003.
12. On the dates in which I did not work on the patent application between August 1st and November 3rd, I had taken time off due to the birth of my daughter, was engaged in other client-related matters, was awaiting drawing revisions from the draftsman, or the client was reviewing the application.

13. The statements above demonstrate due diligence from the effective date of the Hohenacker reference to the filing of the patent application.
14. I declare that all statements made herein of my own knowledge are true and that all statements made on information and belief are believed to be true; and further that these statements were made with knowledge that willful false statements and the like so made are punishable by fine or imprisonment, or both, under Section 1001 of Title 18 of the United States Code and that such willful false statements may jeopardize the validity of the instant application or any patent issuing therefrom.
